

Annotated Bibliography: Michael Otchere, Will Van Fossen, Alec Greenmeier

Primary Sources:

Cox, Bobby. "Jackie Robinson Stats." Baseball, 1956,

www.baseball-reference.com/players/r/robinja02.shtml. This was a website of pictures that contained Jackie Robinson's stats from 1956 and a record of what he did. Accessed Dec 9, 2019.

Fordin, Spencer. "Civil Rights Game on Jackie's Day Unites MLB." MLB.com, 16 Apr. 2015, www.mlb.com/news/civil-rights-game-gets-fitting-new-date-jackie-robinson-day/c-117218674. This was a picture of Jackie Robinson next to his three other teammates. Those teammates helped out Jackie Robinson and stuck by his side no matter what and pushed him to go farther even though he was the only African American baseball player at the time. Accessed Dec 9, 2019.

Graham, Renee. "In 'Jackie Robinson,' Ken Burns Shows A Civil Rights Champion As Well As A Baseball Icon." In 'Jackie Robinson,' Ken Burns Shows A Civil Rights Champion As Well As A Baseball Icon | The ARtery, WBUR, 11 Apr. 2016, www.wbur.org/artery/2016/04/11/jackie-robinson-ken-burns. This was a picture of Jackie Robinson who grabbed a sign and joined a picket line in Cleveland, Ohio, to protest discrimination against blacks at southern lunch counters, 1960. The picketing was organized by the NAACP. Accessed Dec 9, 2019.

Higbe, Kirby. "Robinson Hits Stride in Rout of Dodgers." 1946. Game Recap.

This was a newspaper recapping the events of one of Jackie's games and the amazing statistics he had. Accessed Dec 1, 2019.

Levingston, Steven. "Before Trump vs. the NFL, There Was Jackie Robinson vs. JFK." The Washington Post, WP Company, 1 Apr. 2019, www.washingtonpost.com/news/retropolis/wp/2017/09/24/before-trump-vs-the-nfl-there-was-jackie-robinson-vs-jfk/. This was a picture of Jackie Robinson, the hero who integrated. Accessed Dec 9, 2019.

Prince, David, Prince on Preaching, Ferocious Gentleman behind Jackie's Famous moment, DavidPrince.com. This was a picture of Jackie and Branch Rickey when Jackie was signing the papers to have his jersey retired from the league. Accessed Dec 1, 2019.

Robinson, Jackie. Being interviewed at the march on Washington, August 28, 1963. This was a picture of Jackie and his son when Jackie was speaking out against all the racial injustices taking place in the south. Accessed Dec 1, 2019.

Robinson, Jackie. "Chock Full O' Nuts." Received by the president, 425 Lexington Avenue, May 13, 1958, New York, New York. This Letter intrigued us because it talked about how blacks had been waiting patiently and we're fed up and wanted to get their rights. Accessed Dec 1, 2019.

Robinson, Jackie. "Chock Full O' Nuts." Received by the president, February 9, 1961. This was a letter written by Jackie to JFK with concern about how he was planning to treat blacks In his presidency. Accessed Dec 9, 2019.

Robinson, Jackie. Civil Rights Advocate "National Archive and Records Administration, www.archives.gov/education/lessons/Jackie-Robinson/letter-1948. This was a letter to President Eisenhower after he stepped in to protect a student going to school and Jackie wanted discretion in the near future. Accessed Nov 16, 2019.

Robinson, Jackie. "Faith in Democracy." Received by Ralph Morton, Brooklyn, 1946, New York New, York. In this letter, Jackie is writing about his tryout for the Dodgers and how nice the teammates were at first which surprised him and then it transitioned to how mean they were. Accessed Nov 16, 2019.

Robinson, Jackie, Michael G. Long. First-class Citizenship: the civil rights letters of Jackie Robinson. Times Books. 2008. This was a collection of letters written during the Civil Rights movement and they provided us with insight into conversations of the time period. Accessed Dec 20, 2019.

Robinson, Jackie. "Players record", Montreal, 1946. This was a record of Jackie Robinson's stats when he was in the MLB and showed how amazing he truly was and how he represented Blacks. Accessed Dec 9, 2019.

Robinson, Jackie. Received by Fred Morrow, August 13, 1957, 6:31 A.M. This telegram was sent by Jackie to Fred and discussed how Jackie wanted equal rights for everyone. Accessed Dec 20, 2019.

Robinson, Jackie. Received by President JFK, June 15, 1963, 7:26 AM. This letter was Jackie writing out his outrage towards what the southern whites were doing to create more segregation and not free blacks from their holds of racism. Accessed Jan 19, 2020.

Robinson, Jackie. Received by President Lyndon B. Johnson, March 9, 1965. This telegram Jackie sent explained how he was sickened by African Americans being clubbed by whites for just having a peaceful protest and he wanted the president to do something to stop this. Accessed Jan 19, 2020.

Robinson, Jackie. Received by Ronal L. Hunt (Deputy special assistant to the President), April 20, 1972. This letter was sent right before Jackie died and it was his last try to get equality for blacks. Accessed Jan 19, 2020.

Robinson, Jackie, Wendell Smith. Jackie Robinson: My own story, Golden Springs Publishing, 1948. In this book, Jackie was telling it from the first-person point of view and that changed the perspective we had and what we presumed. Accessed Jan 19, 2020.

Secondary Sources:

Brokaw, Tom. "Biography". Ducksters educational site, 2011.
www.ducksters.com/sports/jackierobinson\_php. This was a website on all of Jackie's life and explained aspects of his years in the military. Accessed Dec 19, 2019.

Castle, Andrews. Jackie Robinson -Constitutional Rights. Foundation CRF-usa.org/black-history. This website just covered all of black history and what Jackie did to push for rights for all blacks, not just sports. Accessed Dec 9, 2019.

Decker, Ed. "Jackie Robinson 1919-1972." Encyclopedia.com, Infonaunes corp, pp.1-56. This Encyclopedia mentioned Jackie's later stages after baseball and how he got to see what he did make a difference. Accessed Dec 1, 2019.

Dreier, Peter. "Jackie Robinson: A Legacy of Activism." The American Prospect,
prospect.org/civil-rights/jackie-robinson-legacy-activism/. This website started from Jackie's military life and went on to what he did in the MLB and the important things he did. Accessed Jan 19, 2020.

Fowler, Chris. "MLB Baseball Sports Documentary, 1998. Youtube.com/watch?v=K8x581Z12R1. This Documentary solely focused on Jackie in The MLB and all the contributions to sports he made to the MLB. Accessed Nov 16, 2019.

Herman, Gail, and John O' Brien. Who was Jackie Robinson? Grosset and Dunlap, 2011. This Who was book was a great starting place for our project because it opened up our eyes to the greatness of Jackie Robinson. Accessed Nov 16, 2019.

History.com Editors (there was not one specific author). "Jackie Robinson." History.com, A and E television networks, 29 Oct. 2009, .history.com/topics/black-history/Jackie-Robinson. This article was split into different sections each dedicated to one part of Jackie's life and how he started from such humble beginnings. Accessed Dec 19, 2019.

Lyle, Spencer. "Jackie inspired Abdul Jabbar. Generations at UCLA." MLB.com. This website was helpful for explaining how Jackie inspired others to get involved in the sport and his further contributions he made. Accessed Nov 16, 2019.

Ott, Tim. "Late-Game Strategy: The activism of Jackie Robinson." Bibliography.com, A and E Networks Television, 23 Oct. 2019, www.biography.com/news/jackie-robinson-civil-rights-facts. This website contained information on how Jackie was also a civil rights activist along with playing baseball. Accessed Dec 19, 2019.

Palz, Ellie. "Jackie Robinson and 10 other African Americans in sports" Bibliography.com A and E Network television. 9, Aug. 2019. This website talked about ten great African Americans to lead the way in sports and of course, Jackie was one. Accessed Dec 19, 2019.

Powler, Chris." MLB Baseball Sports Documentary, 1998. youtube.com/hateh.ven8e58121rr1. This talks about Jackies' entry into the MLB and what exactly he did and contributed to the MLB. Accessed Dec 10, 2019.

Rickley, Branch. "Baseball Hall of fame," baseballhall.org/hall-of-fame/rickley-branch. Branch Rickley was a very important person in Jackie's life and this website was all about Branch and how he put Jackie in the MLB. Accessed Jan 19, 2020.

Rickley, Branch. "Sportsinblackandwhite.com" 12012/10/06/branch-rickley-how-he-integrated-baseball. This website talked about Branch Rickey and his help he gave Jackie. Accessed Dec 10, 2019.

Robeson, Andrew. "MLK Day: Athletes who broke barriers in the U.S." Bleacher Report, Bleacher Report, 2 Oct. 2017. This website was explaining all the athletes who broke barriers in the United States and included a page about Jackie. Accessed Nov 16, 2019.

Robinson, Sharon. "Jackie Robinson Foundation", 2019. www.jackierobinson.org/. This website was created by Jackie's daughter Sharon. This contains information about her dad unknown to others and how his life affected all blacks. Accessed Dec 20, 2019.

Simon, Scott. Jackie Robinson and the integration of baseball. John Wiley and Sons inc, 2007.
This book was very interesting to read because the focus was not on Jackie the focus was on the integration of baseball and how blacks changed the course of it.
Accessed Nov 16, 2019.

Strode, Woody. "Encyclopedia Britannica, INC." 24 July 2019,
www.britannica.com/biography/Woody-Strode. This website talked about how Jackie went to UCLA and how he helped integrate blacks in the NFL as well as the MLB.
Accessed Dec 20, 2019.

Swaine, Rick. "Jackie Robinson". Jackie Robinson Society for American Baseball Research 2006, sabr.org/biopro/person/bb9c2490. This website had different tabs on Jackie and the main page was the one with the most research about the topic.
Accessed Dec 19, 2019.

Tygiel, Jules. "Jackie Robinson." New World Encyclopedia, 2018,
www.newworldencyclopedia.org/entry/jackierobinson. This encyclopedia opened other options up for our group to talk about Jackie in the Negro leagues before he got into the MLB. Accessed Dec 19, 2019.

Worldwide, CMG editors ( no specific author just group of writers). "The official licensing website of Jackie Robinson." Jackie Robinson, CMG Worldwide, 2011, www.Jackierobinson.com/. This website talked about Jackie's military involvement and what he did before baseball. Accessed Nov 16, 2019.